Re: United States v. Jeffrey Hastings, 20 Cr. 534 (GHW)

Dear Judge Woods:

Defendant Jeffrey Hastings respectfully requests a second 30-day extension of his report date from March 2, 2022 to April 1, 2022. To date, the Bureau of Prisons (“BOP”) has not designated Mr. Hastings to a facility that is capable of treating his serious medical conditions, for which he is seeking additional care and treatment. The Government has represented to undersigned counsel that it understands BOP may designate Mr. Hastings imminently, but unless such designation occurs by February 18, 2022, it does not take a position on this request.

Update on Mr. Hastings’s Medical Status

Mr. Hastings suffers from numerous serious health conditions. See PSR ¶¶ 81-86; Dkt. No. 112.

Request for 30-Day Extension of Mr. Hastings's Report Date

Mr. Hastings has not yet been designated by the BOP to report to any federal facility, so there remains a serious risk that if Mr. Hastings were to report to the U.S. Marshal's Service in New York City, his medical conditions would be untreated and may become life threatening. Mr. Hastings has reached out to his supervising officer from U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services in Alaska, who has advised that his status is still "in progress" in the designation program. Mr. Hastings has offered to provide any additional information to assist in the designation process, but has not received any further requests to date. The Government has represented that based on information it has received, Mr. Hastings may be designated imminently, but to date, no designation has occurred. An additional 30 days should allow further time for BOP to designate Mr. Hastings to a facility that can adequately care for his medical conditions and would allow Mr. Hastings additional time to formalize a treatment plan for his worsening medical conditions [REDACTED].

Accordingly, Mr. Hastings respectfully requests a 30-day extension to report to the BOP to allow him to seek treatment and further stabilization of [REDACTED] and to allow the BOP to designate him to a medical facility that is able to treat his medical conditions.

Respectfully submitted,

Application granted. The deadline for Mr. Hastings to surrender is extended to April 1, 2022.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate the motion pending at Dkt. No. 117.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 18, 2022
